NASHVILLE MARKET REPORT.

Corrected from the Nashville American every Thursday evening.

Business is flowing along uninterruptedly; prices are firm and in several instances show signs of advancing.

The excitement in the coffee market in New York is causing local brokers and merchants to be on the qui vive, and if yesterday's advance is maintained an advance in local circles may be expected.

The outlook for an active grocery market is good.

Grain is slow, prices about the same.

Strawberries have been getting more plentiful; they are worth all the way from $1 to $6 per case.

Cherries are also coming in freely; $7 per case is the regular price.

The yards are well supplied with

THE COMMENCEMENT.

Epitome of the Week's Exercises at Cumberland Female College.

The commencement at C. F. College, like Christmas, comes but once a year, and during the continuance of the various exercises consequent upon this event, public interest here is about as completely absorbed in them as in the usual Christmas festivities.

All of the school work and examinations were finished up last week.
The annual sermon was delivered at the C. P. Church on Sunday morning by Rev. D. C. Kelley, D. D., of Nashville. Every seat in the church was filled. While Dr. Kelley's effort was quite interesting and entertaining throughout, to call it a sermon would be a misnomer, for it partook in very slight degree of the nature of a sermon. It was an address of much merit, rather of a secular than of a religious nature, and was well adapted to the occasion for which it was delivered, but not to the day and place of its delivery. It obliterated the line which should be distinctly marked between the pulpit and the platform.
He used no particular text, but took for the subject of his address four women of the Bible, viz: the mother of Moses, Pharaoh's daughter, Deborah, and Mary, and incidentally Martha, the sister of Mary. His address was replete with instruction and good advice to the young ladies.
Taken altogether it was an excellent lecture, and the Doctor held the undivided attention of his large audience for more than an hour.

On Monday night there was a concert consisting of musical and literary exercises, and concluding with a calisthenic march and drill which captivated all who saw it. This branch has been taught during the last ten months by Miss Mary L. McClure, one of the music teachers, and the march and drill on Monday night was the prettiest ever given here.
The young ladies were beautifully dressed in pink and green costumes, and the promptness, precision and grace with which they executed the various movements and evolutions was highly creditable to both themselves and teacher.

The leading feature of Tuesday night's entertainment was the Operetta entitled Laila. The company of lovely maidens and troupe of beautiful little fairies, each numbering a score or more, presented very entrancing spectacular effects. Miss Leila McClure as Laila, the May Queen, and Miss Mary Ritchey as Queen of the Fairies, sustained their parts admirably, while all the participants acquired themselves with praiseworthy excellence.

The exercises of the graduating class were given on Wednesday night. The essays were as follows: Miss Emma McCleary, of Texas; Salutatory.

Miss Bernie Beasley, of Tennessee; subject—"Standing With Reluctant Feet, where the Brook and River Meet."

Miss Carrie Mosely, of Tennessee; subject—"Poodles."

Miss Lizzie Ford of Texas. (Miss Ford was called home by illness in her family a few weeks ago, and from that same cause, was not enabled to return.)

Miss Leila McClure, of Tennessee; subject—"Whither."

Miss Laura Edna Warren, of Tennessee; Valedictory—subject; "Rest After Toil; Port After Stormy Sea."

This was followed by the conferring of degrees, and awarding medals and diplomas, also a short address by Mr. F. M. Smith, and a few remarks by other gentlemen present.

The exercises throughout were interspersed with vocal and instrumental music of a high order, some of it was so high that we couldn't ("catch on"), and all of the entertainments were unusually pleasant, interesting, and entertaining.

Medals were awarded as follows:

Department out of school, given by Mrs. Rogers, to Misses Jennie Cunningham, Bernie Beasley, Leila Mc-Clure, Maggie Buquo, and Emma McCleary.

Scholarship Medal, given by Profs.
Finney and Paschal, to Miss Maggie Buquo.

Instrumental Music, given by Miss Davis, to Miss Emma Mc-Cleary.

Vocal Music, given by Miss Reed, to Miss Leila McClure.

Instrumental Music, given by Miss McClure, to Miss Dela Goodnight.

Music prize book, given by Miss Reed, to Miss Maria Lou Stainback.
Music prize book, given by Miss McClure, to Miss Ida Broyles.

NOTES AND PERSONALS.

Messrs. Finney and Paschal accompanied the young ladies as far as Nashville Thursday, to see them well on their journey homeward. They will return today (Friday.)

All the young ladies and visitors left for their homes Thursday.

The College grounds have quite a lonesome appearance now.

Mrs. Street, of Dallas, Texas, was here to see her daughter.

Mr. Frank McGuire, of Fayetteville, was among the visitors.

The work on the new wing should be pushed forward rapidly now.

Mrs. R. W. Friend and daughter, of Pecan, Ark., arrived last week and remained through the commencement exercises.

Miss Laura Warren, of the graduating class, had a brother, sister and sister-in-law here from Fayetteville during the commencement.

Miss Mary McClure will spend the greater part of the vacation visiting friends and relatives in Baltimore and Washington.

Mr. H. H. Buquo, of Erin, Tenn., and Dr. T. J. Elam, of Murfreesboro, both of whom had daughters in the College, were in attendance upon the the exercises.

Mr. Chas. A. Teachout, of Huntington, and Mr. O. C. Conatser, of Jamestown, were here to attend the exercises, and escort their sisters home.

The non-resident members of the faculty left with the girls Thursday morning for their several homes.
Miss Reed, after spending two or three days at home in Nashville, will Maggie, to remain a couple of months.

in regular attendance and conduct daily recitations in an instructive and interesting manner.

FAULKNER SPRINGS.

The Weekly Budget of News from this Thriving Suburban Settlement.

FAULKNER SPRINGS, May 29.— There is but little work being done by the farmers now. Owing to the rainy weather the crops are suffering about as bad now for work as they were for rain two weeks ago.

Mr. Wm. Sellers, one of DeKalb county's best farmers, is at Mr. Thos.
Faulkner's tonight. He says that he never saw a better prospect for wheat in his life than there is now.

Mr. Erby Montgomery left yesterday for Louisville on a business trip.

Dr. Knapp and Mr. Rumbley were here yesterday.

Jackson Stewart has been confined to his room several days with rheumatism.

Mr. Bailey Cantrell and Mrs. Thos.
Faulkner will start for Lebanon in the morning to attend the marriage of their sister, Miss Minnie Cantrell, which will take place Thursday.

Mr. Jas. Bostick and wife, were at the springs here last Sunday evening.
Prof. Finney and family, were out at the springs yesterday.

Tom Stratton was here yesterday, in the interest of a dry goods house.

Messrs. L. J. and R. S. Potter, of McMinnville, were here today.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. B. Mason, and master Baily, attended the communion meeting at Bethlehem last Sunday.

Mr. Thos. Faulkner was on the sick list a few days this week, but is up again.

Mrs. Mattie Montgomery returned from Lebanon this evening.

Mr. Wm. Biles, of McMinnville, was here this evening.

We have a handsome young widower out here whom we think is seriously contemplating running for exalted position to which it will take only one vote to elevate him. We think his chances are good.

Cure of Cancer and Ulcers.

Judge T. C. McLendon writes to the Swift Specific Co.: "About three years ago Jerry Bradley had a cancerous sore on his face, near the right eye. It caused him a great deal of pain, and he lost the sight of the eye but was finally cured by the use of Swift's Specific. This case is well known in Wilkes county, Ga., where he lived."

Mr. L. Cox, of Arkabutla, Tate Co., Miss., writes: "I suffered a great deal from old ulcers for years. Your medicine was recommended, and after using six bottles was completely cured. Your medicine does even more than you claim for it. I have known it to cure cases which were thought hopeless."

Mrs. A. M. Goldsmith, No. 674 Warren St., Brooklyn, N. Y., writes:
"I commenced using S. S. S. about three years ago. I suffered much with a sore throat for over a year.
I used a great many other remedies with no good results. My little girl, also, had sore fingers; it commenced from the quick, and then the nails would come off. We doctored her for over two years, and when I began using S. S. S. I thought I would see what it would do for her.
I am thankful to say that it entirely cured her. It is the best remedy I know of for the blood. I really believe it was the means of saving my life. The doctor told me I had a throat disease similar to General Grant's. I cheerfully recommend it to all suffering from disordered blood."
